

Pinch Yourself Now

This stylish country residence set on 1195m² is steeped in the history of Corowa on the Murray River. A desirable period aspect.

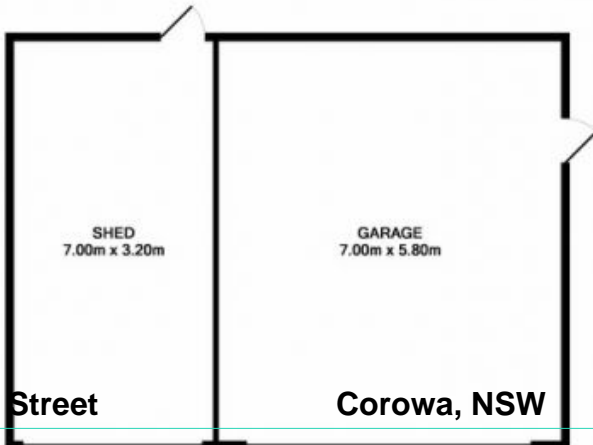

A spacious rear alfresco patio adorned with cool leafy grape vines to relax under, pouring an icy cold local wine, while watching your children score a goal in the basket ball ring at the bottom of the garden. And the littlies play in the cute play house in the spacious easy care garden, safely enclosed amid fruit trees.

This leads to a terrific large workmans shed with double remote door. A second attached at the front of the house.

Enter MONOMEITH, a gated secure yard leads onto the period tiled patio where sunny winter coffee can be served. THIS
